

Graphs related to dengue Cases in Singapore

February 1, 2017

1. DHF and DH During year 2000 to 2008.

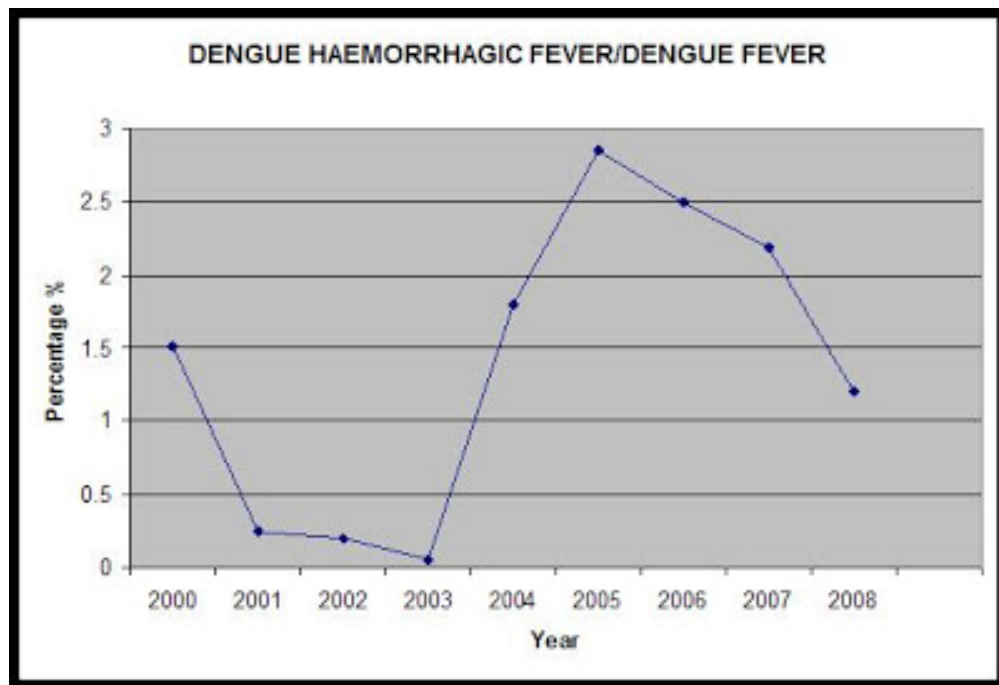

Figure 1: DHF and DF during year 2000 to 2008.[1]

2. DHF in year 2008 to 2009.

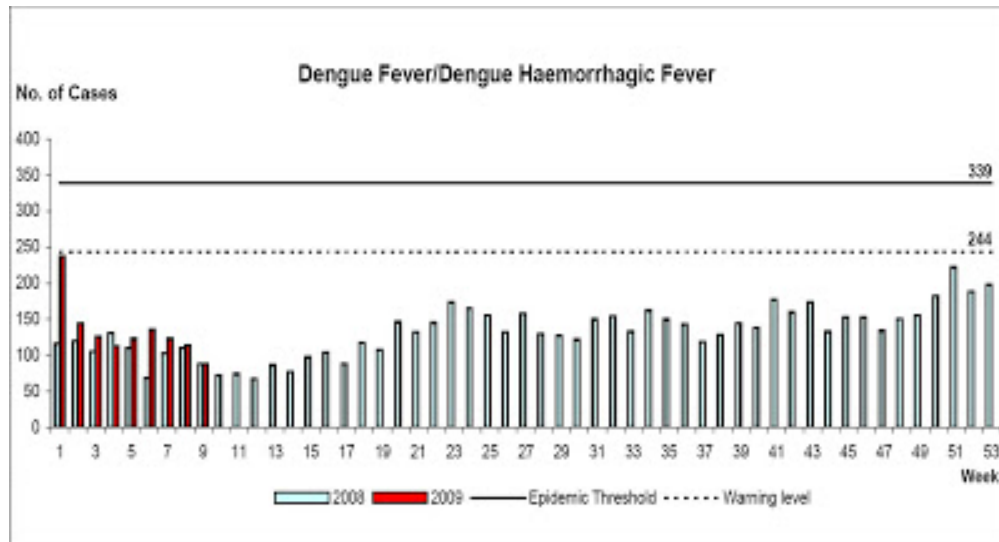

Figure 2: DHF in Year 2008 to 2009.[1]

3. Dengue cases in Singapore during year 2007 to 2009.

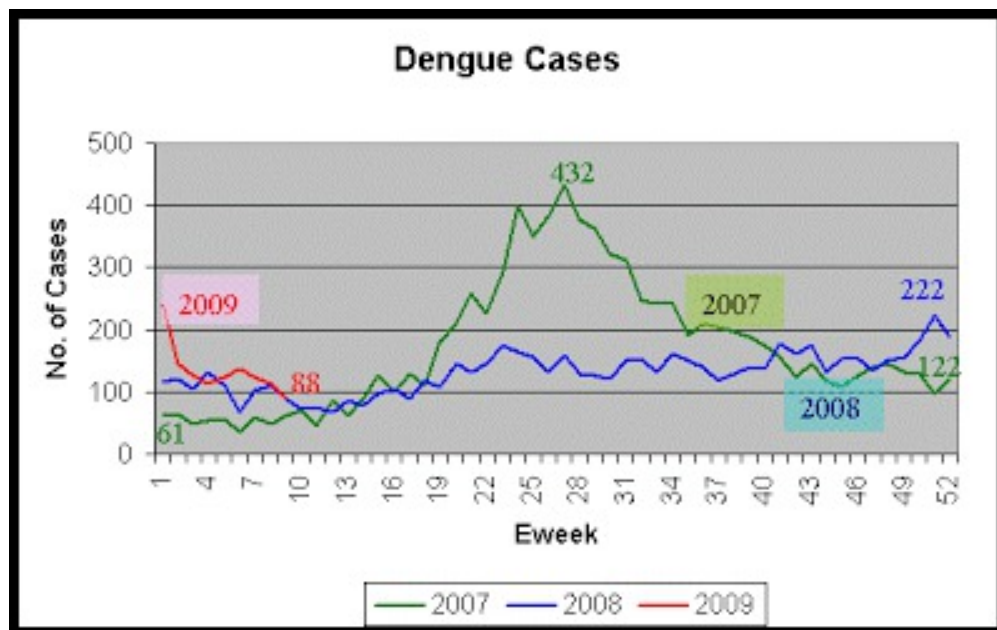

Figure 3: Dendue cases in Singapore during year 2007 to 2009.[1]

4. DHF and DF cases during year 2009 to 2013.

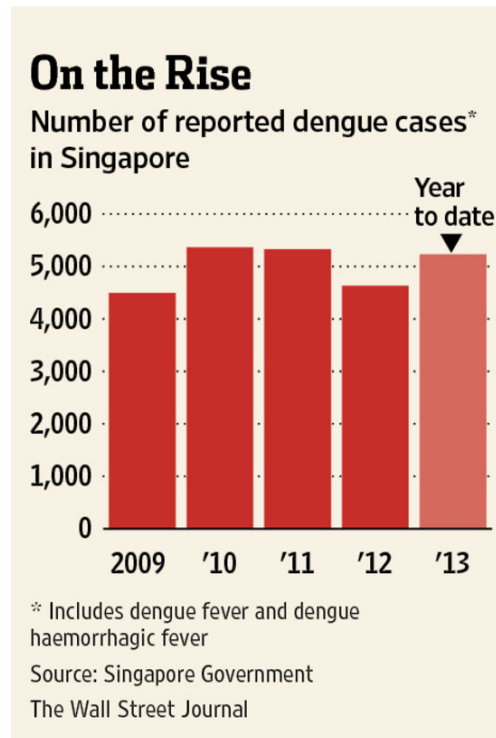

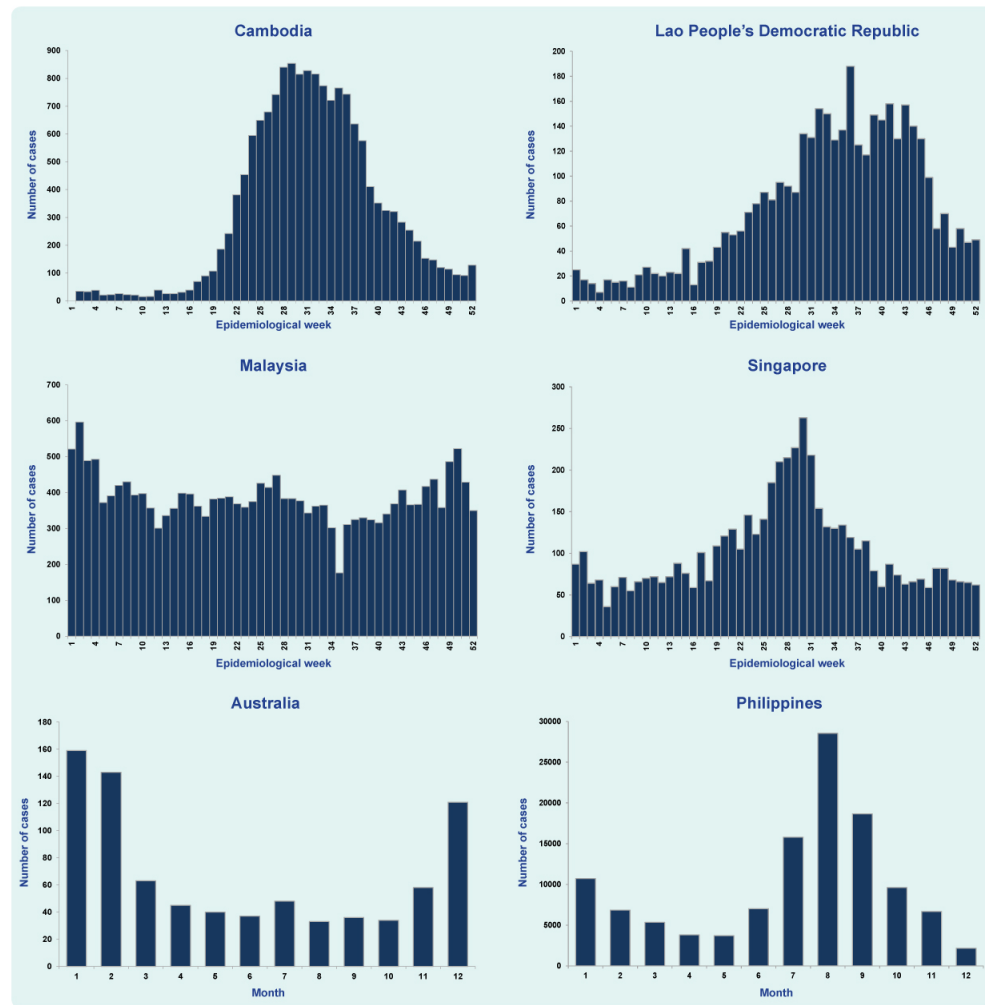

Figure 4: DHF and DF cases during year 2009 to 2013.[2]

5. Dengue cases in the year 2011.

Figure 2. Reported number of dengue cases by calendar week (Cambodia, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, Malaysia and Singapore) or month (Australia and the Philippines), 2011

Source: World Health Organization Western Pacific Regional Office based on data provided by the Member States.
Note: Units for the vertical axis is variable by country.

Figure 5: Dengue cases in the year 2011.[3]

6. Dengue cases 1990 to 2014.

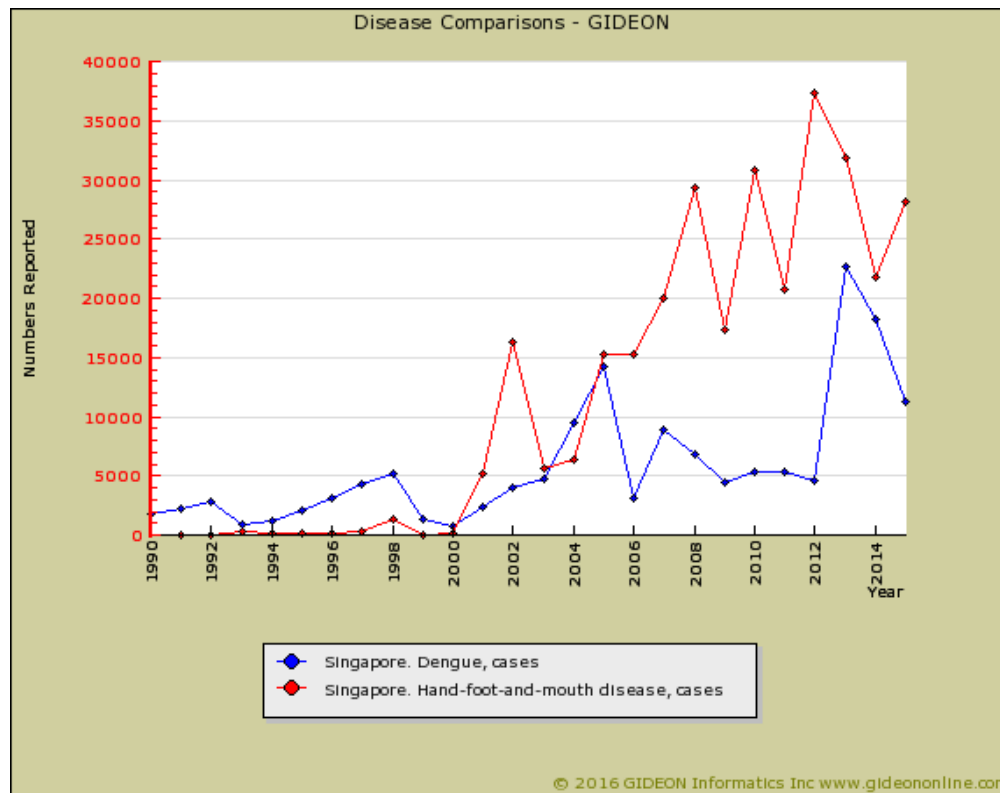

Figure 6: Dengue cases during year 1990 to 2014.[4]

References

- [1] The gigamole diaries.
<http://gigomole.blogspot.sg/2009/03/dengue-in-singapore.html>
- [2] The wall street journal
<https://www.wsj.com/articles/SB10001424127887324743704578446162122159222>
- [3] Epidemiologic update on the dengue situation in the Western Pacific Region, 2011
http://www.wpro.who.int/wpsar/volumes/04/2/2013_VBD_RA_Arima/en/
- [4] Disease comparison-Guideon
<http://www.gideononline.com/category/ebooks/>